

KEYNOTE

Rep. Dan Crenshaw is a proud 6th generation Texan who served as a U.S. Navy SEAL, the most elite fighting force in history. After graduating SEAL training, Dan deployed to Iraq to join SEAL Team Three, his first of five deployments overseas. On his third deployment he was hit by an IED blast in Helmand province, Afghanistan. His right eye was destroyed in the blast and his left eye was badly damaged. In 2018 Dan was elected to represent the people of Texas's 2nd Congressional District. In Congress he was appointed to the Homeland Security Committee and the Budget Committee. He is focused on border security, disaster relief funding, port security, cutting frivolous spending and implementing fiscally responsible policies.

Joining Representative Crenshaw onstage as Master of Ceremonies will be Joseph A. Morris. Mr. Morris served as Assistant U.S. Attorney General under President Ronald Reagan. We are delighted to welcome him back to the Lincoln Day Dinner event.
